This traditional Greek wedding song, originally called 'Tou Gamou', has been arranged by Edward Huws Jones, a composer, arranger and violinist who specializes in folk music. He suggests: 'Imagine you are part of a Greek band playing for a wedding party, accompanied by accordion and double bass – and in the pizzicato bars you can even join in with the bouzouki! Then when you get to the forte in b. 17 you can really play out and enjoy using lots of bow.'

© 2011 by The Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music
Reproduced from Edward Huws Jones: Violin Star 2 (ABRSM)